Welcome to the Maldives

A destination of dazzling tropical beauty that offers the perfect recipe for relaxation and rejuvenation! A country of more than a thousand islands spread over 90,000 square kilometres of the Indian Ocean. Endowed with a dreamlike beauty, the Maldives welcomes you to enjoy its natural splendour and charm. For most holidaymakers, great sunny days with deep blue skies, clear lagoons with pleasing shades of blue, moonlit nights, the soothing sound of waves lapping soft white sands, the ruffle of palms and powdery white beaches are the basic ingredient for a tropical island holiday – few places offer these in greater abundance than the Maldives.

Maldives offers a variety of resorts catering to the taste and budget of most travellers. All resorts are located on their own private island, making their beaches idyllically crowd-free. From Robinson Crusoe style to those offering a more conventional style, your resort is your haven from which to spend your days relaxing with a cocktail or two, diving in the spectacular ocean, or taking advantage of the spa facilities, watersports or other activities the resort has to offer. Maldives is bare foot luxury at its best.

The Maldives has a hot tropical climate and the temperature remains remarkably consistent at around 30°C year round – and that’s on the beach and in the water! The warm seas of the Maldives have high visibility throughout the year; with water clear enough to see the passing fish as far as 50 metres away at times. Over a thousand species of fish and other underwater creatures inhabit the Maldivian waters. Enjoy your days snorkelling, diving, deep-sea fishing or cruising at sunset.

Getting to Your Resort

International flights arrive at Male’s Hulhule airport, which is on an island of its own. Transfers from the airport to your resort island are either by boat, seaplane or domestic flight, depending on the distance. If your resort requires a seaplane transfer, be aware that seaplanes only operate in daylight hours. The seaplane journey in itself is an experience, as you get stunning views of the atolls – make sure you get a window seat and that you get your camera out before boarding. The seaplane will usually land next to a floating platform, from which you will be picked up by boat to be taken the remaining few metres in shore to your resort.

Diving

If you are a certified diver, travel with proof of your certification and discover this miracle of nature called Maldives - a true diver’s dream. If you are not certified - well, there’s no time like the present! Take the plunge while on holiday in the Maldives – with its shallow lagoons, the Maldives has ideal conditions for beginners. With over a thousand different species of coral and fish, every dive is a fascinating experience.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Maldives is the lowest country in the world
- 99% of Maldives is water
- The Maldives is the smallest country in Asia
- There are over 1190 islands and 26 main atolls

Centara Ras Fushi Resort & Spa ****

This is one of two Centara resorts in the Maldives. It's designed as an adult oriented destination, ideal for couples and honeymooners with the majority of the accommodation on stilts over the water and under 12's not allowed.

The resorts location in the North Male Atoll ensures a quick speedboat transfer, and pure white sand and a sparkling blue lagoon make this a perfect playground for beach games, snorkelling and watersports, while the magical underwater world of some of the top dive sites in the Maldives are reached within less than half an hour by dhoni.

We strongly suggest upgrading the basic package price to one of the All Inclusive packages available which offer a dine around option, including morning and afternoon teas, an excellent range of drinks both alcoholic and non-alcoholic, at least 16 cocktails and seven mocktails plus selected watersports activities – really good value – and if you opt for the Gold All Inclusive package you can also enjoy free scuba diving as an alternative to a Spa credit per room per day.

Grab yourself an over water hammock at Viu Bar for sundowners and top that off with dinner at Al Khaimah, the Arabic a la carte restaurant located in a genuine Bedouin tent complete with low slung seating, rich fabrics and tapestry carpets – what could possibly be more special.

Constance Moofushi Maldives ⚙⚙⚙⚙⚙

This member of Constance Hotels and Resorts Unique Resorts Collection, to us, defines the Maldives experience; barefoot chic from the moment you arrive to the moment you – reluctantly – leave.

OK, so if you’re staying in a Water Villa on stilts floating above the turquoise water of the Indian Ocean, you’ll need to wear sandals on the sun soaked boardwalk, but you get the idea! The ultimate in relaxation, even the restaurants and bars and all main areas have sand floors. The Moofushi Villas have a unique soul with thatched roofing and decorated with wondrous tones of nature and a hint of Constance chic.

Ayada Maldives ⚙⚙⚙⚙⚙

Multi award winning Ayada Maldives is a private island resort in Maldives' relatively unexplored Southern Gaafu Dhaalu Atoll, just 30 kilometres North of the Equator. It is a truly luxurious retreat in genuine Maldivian style.

Traditional thatched-roof Water Villas stand on stilts over the resort's peaceful lagoon, while Beach Villas offer absolute privacy amid tropical greenery alongside powder-soft palm-lined white beaches. With the exception of the Garden Villas, all Villas have private pools, butler service and thoughtful 5 Star detailing.

Food lovers can explore the six restaurants and four bars to tantalise your taste buds. If action is your vibe, there is an array of watersports as well as scuba diving to keep you busy, or you can hit the gym, choose from one of three jogging tracks to get your heart rate up, or even learn to Zumba. On the other end of the scale for complete relaxation there is a fabulous Spa which boasts a Turkish Hammam and eight treatment Villas.

For snorkelling enthusiasts the coral reefs surrounding Ayada have barely been seen by humans so they remain pristine and virtually untouched, and for surfing fans, some of the Maldives' best surfing breaks are just a quick speedboat journey away.

Amari Havodda Maldives ⚙⚙⚙⚙⚙

Designed with a concept of ‘natural sustainability’, this beach resort embraces the beauty of nature and the serenity of a borderless horizon surrounded by rich and colourful marine life. Award winning Amari combines exclusivity with immaculate service excellence and is a jewel waiting to be found.

Few places are still secluded, few will take your breath away at first sight and few have been left untouched and are totally exotic. With its idyllic location in Maldives’ Southern Gaafu Dhaalu Atoll, Amari Havodda ticks all these boxes.

Elegant but simple Villas, on the beach or over water, are coupled with sophisticated technology. The selection of sporting and leisure facilities is impressive with activities from jet ski excursions to water skiing, stand up paddle boarding, windsurfing and banana boat rides - you’ll be able to enjoy the sun and fun in a more active way.

The resort has its own organic vegetable and herb garden so you know your meals will be excellent. Each restaurant has an enchanting beachside setting or a spectacular view of the turquoise lagoon to pair with your meal. As long as you make your booking 45 days in advance you will get a complimentary upgrade to an All Inclusive meal plan (excluding travel in peak season).

For a real spoil, book a dinner at Ember Robotayaki. Amari has interpreted this centuries old Japanese culinary tradition of ‘fireside cooking’ in a stunning beach setting.

Conrad Maldives Rangali Island ⚙⚙⚙⚙⚙ Deluxe

You want the best? Then this is it. Conrad has won a host of awards, and rightly so. Luxury, service and comfort are of the very highest order and, whilst it can be very private and exclusive, there is still plenty of vibe and action for those who want it.

Beach and Over Water accommodation is available and whichever you choose, you will want for nothing. It has to be said that the Deluxe Beach Villa is one of the best room categories in the Maldives, with an amazing outdoor bathroom, private plunge pool and breath-taking accommodation. As for the Over Water Rooms, they are topped (if that's possible) by the Sunset Water Villas, with a glass-floored living room and a circular bed which rotates so you can watch the sunset - they really do have to be seen to be believed. This resort sets the benchmark for sophisticated barefoot luxury.

Ever dined in an underwater restaurant? You can here! Or book a gourmet dinner with the sommelier in the Wine Cellar – home to 20,000 bottles of wine – or enjoy lobsters and champagne on the beach. Did we say this was the best?
