

Fact Sheet

Kichanga Lodge,
Zanzibar

Kichanga is located on the south east coast of Zanzibar at the end of the Michamvi peninsula in a spectacular position on the crest of a hill overlooking a magnificent private white sandy beach in a cove protected by coral headlands. The lodge is in perfect harmony with the natural environment and provides a peaceful and quiet holiday atmosphere far from the crowds and other resorts.

▪ Location

South East coast.

▪ Accommodation

The resort comprises 23 individual bungalows and villas, well-spaced in the tropical gardens to ensure peace and privacy. All are under Makuti thatch and have large wooden verandas (some have interconnecting veranda doors making them suitable for families). The Villas have a mezzanine level with 2 single beds so they are also a good family option.

6 Garden View Bungalows

12 Ocean View Bungalows

5 Ocean View Villas

All accommodation is furnished in African style with hand crafted furniture, ceiling fans, mosquito nets, hairdryer and bathrooms with shower. The glassless windows have shutters and curtains for maximum enjoyment of the breeze and sound of the ocean.

▪ Dining

The open sided restaurant with its uninterrupted view of the beach and ocean features local dishes as well as international cuisine and dinners vary between buffets and set menus. Romantic dinners can be arranged on request on the rooftop terrace. A small grill (maximum 4 guests) is available next to the beach bar for starlight dining on the beach.

The Club House is home to the main bar, a cosy lounge area and courtesy library and there is also a beach bar on the beach. Afternoon tea and cakes are served here every afternoon at 16h30.
