Welcome to Bali

Bali is so picturesque that you could be fooled into thinking it was an artistic masterpiece: rice paddies roll down hillsides, volcanoes soar through the clouds, the forests are lush and tropical, the beaches are lapped by the warm waters of the Indian Ocean; and in the villages, you'll notice the wisdom and peace in old people's faces. Over 20,000 temples and palaces, coupled together with colourful festivals, music and dance is testimony to the island's rich heritage.

Kuta Beach was first discovered in the 60's, once a sleepy fishing village, it has now transformed into the centre of Bali's surfing, shopping and nightlife. For a holiday where the emphasis is on relaxation, visit Sanur Beach; for stylish and upscale hotels, boutique shops, trendy clubs, fine dining and beach clubs. Seminyak is the place to be; whilst Nusa Dua caters for the more upmarket taste with magnificent beachfront resorts and access to an 18-hole golf course. Just a few steps away is Tanjung Benoa which offers All Inclusive resorts. If beaches aren't your ideal, then visit Ubud, where the culture and lifestyle of the Balinese is waiting to be discovered.

Climbing a volcano, canyoning, downhill cycling, or a hike through traditional villages will get you closer to nature and Balinese culture. Ubud should be on your itinerary – it is indeed special and it will take your breath away. Bali is a shopping paradise; you will find anything from art work, handicrafts, oils and essence, clothes, shoes, furniture and accessories. You can find surfing for beginners at Kuta and Seminyak Beaches or head to Benoa for other water sport activities like jet skiing, paragliding and water skiing.

Getting around is easy. You will find a range of chauffeur driven limousines, self-drive cars, taxis and hotel shuttles.

Many taxis are not metered so it's wise to negotiate the fare beforehand. Bemos, or communal buses, are available in smaller villages - simply hail the driver and negotiate the fare that suits you both. Motorcycles can also be hired but road and traffic conditions can be busy and somewhat hazardous in certain locations.

Bali has a tropical climate with temperatures averaging 30°C year round. October to April can bring heavy showers and high humidity, but the days are usually sunny. From May to September the humidity is low and the evenings can be quite cool.

Here are some tips while visiting Bali. Shorts or revealing clothing are not allowed in religious places. The head is considered sacred and should never be touched. Hand shaking is common practice but avoid using your left hand for handshakes or giving / receiving anything. Public displays of affection between men and women are deemed inappropriate. Like anywhere in South East Asia, calmness is admired so 'keep your cool' when bargaining or if things are not going according to plan.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Bali is located in Indonesia which is a predominantly Muslim country. However, the majority of the Balinese practice Hinduism.
- About 80% of Bali's economy is dependent on tourism.
- Nyepi Day, also known as 'day of silence' is a unique celebration during which the buzzing activity of the islands is replaced by sweeping tranquillity, with no work, travel or noise.
- Imagine a major commercial building made completely of bamboo. Unbelievable isn't it? Bali offers the awesome opportunity to visit one such building which is actually a chocolate factory.
