White Water Rafting on the Zambezi River An adrenaline rush not to be missed. The walls of basalt rock that capture the mighty Zambezi form one of the great river corridors of the world. A steep walk into and out of the Batoka Gorge and with rapids officially defined as "Grade 5", clients should be reasonably fit for this activity. Includes lunch at the top of a gorge. Tipping is not compulsory, however as a guideline we suggest US$10 per guest per day for a guide and US$5 per guest per day for other staff. Minimum age restriction of 15 years.	From US$110	Low Water Rafting 10 Aug– 25 Dec: 07h30 - 14h30 High Water Rafting 25 Dec – 10 Aug: 07h30 - 14h00
Flying Fox Take a running jump into thin air over the gorge chasm (200m wide and 120m deep) then soar horizontally through the air over the brilliant turmoil of the Zambezi below. Tipping is not compulsory, however as a guideline we suggest US$10 per guest per day. Minimum age restriction of 6 years (parents will need to sign an indemnity).	US$37	Daily Duration 15 minutes
Bungi Jump This is certainly no ordinary bungi jump - at 111 metres with the Falls thundering behind you and the river rushing below, the adrenaline rush is as wild as the river itself. Meet at the Day Activity Centre for the stroll to the Victoria Falls Bridge. Bring your passport as you will pass through the Zambian border. Minimum age restriction: 14 years &amp; maximum weight restriction: 140 kg	US$160	Daily 45 mins – 1 hour
