

Fact Sheet

The Oberoi
Mauritius

Tranquillity, elegance, luxury; all these elements mark out the Oberoi as something special. Whether you stay in the Pavilions or the Villas, not only will you enjoy your own private garden, but you will be cocooned in the lap of luxury.

Grand Baie is there if you want it but for those who want nothing to do with the outside world, gourmet a la carte dining is on offer throughout the resort. Tropical gardens, majestic mountain ranges, perfect beaches and gloriously turquoise waters are your constant companions.

LOCATION

North West, Balaclava, Turtle Bay.

ACCOMMODATION

Stretch out on a romantic four-poster bed and absorb the luxuriant tropical warmth of Mauritius island. Take in all the sites and sounds of Mauritius from your luxury room or villa, while soaking in a hot bath sunken in the palest marble and overlooking your own private open-air garden. If privacy and intimacy is what you seek, the hotel Villas, each with their own lush gardens and dining gazebo with views of the sea, make an exclusive and luxurious retreat.

Luxury Pavilion

With spacious bedroom and sitting area (king bed or twin beds). Each ground floor pavilion has a spacious terrace for private dining and overlooks the gardens and the Indian Ocean.

Luxury Villa with Private Pool

These Villas offer all the features of The Luxury Villa but also have their own swimming pool, measuring 8 x 4.5 meters, set within the walled courtyard garden.

Royal Villa with Private Pool

Elegant interiors and uninterrupted ocean views make the Royal Villa exclusive retreats. Located within a lush tropical garden of over 650 m², it has an elegantly appointed living room and separate bedroom overlooking a 55 m² private pool and the Indian Ocean. An open air thatched dining pavilion provides the ideal setting for al-fresco dining.
