

Fact Sheet

Veranda Paul & Virginie, Mauritius

Pure love and literary inspiration at the adults only Veranda Paul & Virginie. Virginie and Paul were lovers. When Virginie drowned on the sailing ship Saint Geran off the Mauritius north-east coast during a cyclone, Paul was so devastated that he died shortly after of a broken heart. The story was immortalised by JH Bernardin de Sainte-Pierre in 1787 and has become a definition of true love. And so has this resort. Recently renovated, this adult only hotel is a romantic hideaway for two. Dotted with sun beds, love nests and hammocks, this is a cocoon of beauty and tranquility.
