Adaaran Select Hudhuranfushi Maldives

Young, old; family, friends; romantic and tranquil or excitement; Hudhuranfushi has something for everyone. A simple, no frills but comfortable and traditional resort; it's great value for money which makes it perfect for budget conscious travellers. The best bit, however, is the surfing – one of the few islands in the Maldives where you can. The lagoon is huge and offers all the snorkelling you could wish for. The name translates as 'Island of White Gold' and never was a holiday destination better named.

WATERSPORTS & ACTIVITIES (*CHARGES MAY APPLY)

Surfing is without a doubt one of the prime water sports to be enjoyed in the vicinity of the resort. In response to the global demand for un-crowded waves, Hudhuranfushi has implemented a Sustainable Surf Management Plan. In order to enhance the surfing experience and improve service levels to the surfers, the resort restricts the maximum surfers on island per day to 45. All surfers planning on surfing while at Hudhuranfushi between March and October in any year need to be registered. Please note that any surfer arriving unregistered between March and October in any year will not be allowed to surf during the course of their stay.
